

HECUA scholarship application

Up to three $500 scholarships will be awarded each semester to students who have worked for social change and whose future goals will be strengthened by a HECUA semester program. Some additional scholarship money is available for January Interim programs. Students must have applied to a HECUA program in order to be eligible.

REQUIRED INFORMATION:

Name:	College/University:
Expected Graduation (mm/yy):	Major/Minor:
Program applying to:	Current GPA:
Program term:	<input type="checkbox"/> Fall 20 ____ <input type="checkbox"/> January 20 ____ <input type="checkbox"/> Spring 20 ____

REQUIRED MATERIALS:

1. An essay describing past experiences that led to your application and provide specific examples of community work, advocacy, academic courses, travel or employment. Describe how you expect the HECUA program will enable you to further your future goals and dedication to social change.
2. A letter of recommendation. Request a letter from a faculty, staff or community person who knows you well and can comment on your commitment to and work towards social change. This letter should be separate and more detailed than the references for your application. It can be the same individual as used previously.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

1. Your scholarship essay showing the match between your goals and the HECUA program.
2. A strong letter of recommendation.
3. Financial need (students who do not qualify for aid may apply). This is a merit-based scholarship; however, among equally deserving candidates financial need may be considered. Please note in your essay if there are financial considerations. No outside materials (FAFSA forms) are required.
